CUSTOMER SERVICE

To reach our friendly staff, please call 800-621-1115 between 7:00 am and 5:00 pm CST. We will be happy to answer any questions and assist you with your order. When faxing or mailing an order, please include your account number, ISBN, title, and quantity for each item ordered.

SOLUTIONS FOR YOUR LIBRARY

- Cataloging: Our books are cataloged according to Library of Congress standards and AACR2 guidelines with a Dewey call number and your choice of Library of Congress and/or Sears subject headings.
- Bound to last: Most books in this supplement are either Reinforced Library Binding or trade editions. Reinforced Library Bindings are Side sewn with muslin joints. All Scholastic trade hardcover books are published in single editions, with bindings suitable for both trade and library use. Picture books are Smyth sewn and reinforced. Books for older readers are casebound and have three-piece cloth and board covers.

OUR GUARANTEE

All titles in this catalog are guaranteed for five years as long as it is still in print. If the book is no longer available, we can work with you to provide a substitute title. If you are not completely satisfied, please contact customer service for an exchange or refund. We will replace any damaged product as long as you have purchased it directly from us. Prices and terms of this catalog are good until July 31, 2020. Availability of products is subject to change without notice. Some covers may not be final.

How to Read this Book

This book is for children and grown-ups to read together—side by side!

A 😊 means it is the child's turn to read.
A grown-up can read the rest.

Simple text for children who are learning to read

Harder text—that builds knowledge and vocabulary—for grown-ups to read aloud

Bright photos to talk about

Nonfiction text features like charts and captions

Rookie Amazing America™

This gorilla was built to help sell cars. But the car in its hand is not for sale. (Yes, that is a real car!)

The gorilla's other hand reaches down to the ground. Why? So people can climb up and sit in it, of course.

Totally Wacky! Every giant gorilla needs a name, so a naming contest was held. The winner was "Queen Connie of Concrete." She has been called Queen Connie ever since.

Be Smart About Downloads

There are lots of fun things on the Internet. Quizzes, games, and apps are just a few examples. But you need to be careful when you use them. Do not take quizzes that ask for your private information. Ask a grown-up before you download a new game or app. Your parents or caregivers need to make sure it is right for you. They also need to make sure it is safe to download.

DOWNLOAD

Try This! Talk to parents and teachers. Ask how they decide if something is safe to download.

Building an Industry

The first gasoline-powered automobile was invented when Ford was about 22 years old. He was fascinated by it. About 10 years later, Ford built his own car. He called it the Quadricycle.

Ford takes his Quadricycle for a spin in 1896.

Rookie Read-About™ Science The Universe

A Star's Life

Space is filled with huge clouds of gas and dust called nebulas. That is where stars are born. Stars take millions of years to form. First, gravity pulls bits of gas and dust together into a ball. The ball grows bigger and bigger. It starts to spin and heat up. Finally, the ball bursts to life. A star is born!

The word "nebula" means "cloud."

This is the Orion nebula.

FEATURES

- Try it! captions throughout the book give kids ideas about how to incorporate character strengths into their everyday lives
- A Superstar feature introduces readers to a person who really exemplifies the character trait
- It Starts With You! provides easy ways readers can practice the featured strength
- What Would You Do? is an interactive feature where kids think about how they might respond in a certain situation
- Character Quiz lets kids test just how much of the featured trait they possess
- Glossary with pictures

It Starts with You!

Increase your powers of empathy! Here are some ways:

1. Use your imagination. Practice understanding others' feelings by imagining you are a character in a book or movie. Think about what feelings you might have as that character.
2. Create an emotions poster. Cut out pictures from magazines that show people expressing different emotions. Write the matching emotion next to each picture.
3. Act it out. Play a game with friends where you act out a feeling without using words. See if they can guess what the feeling is.

Look at the photo. Can you guess what emotion this girl is acting out?

What Would You Do?

Read the story below and imagine what you might do in this situation.

Your friend falls during a soccer game and cuts her knee. She is really upset and hurt. How can you show empathy?

Need help getting started?

- Can you remember a time when you hurt yourself? How did you feel?
- Has someone ever made you feel better when you have gotten hurt? What did he or she do to help?

How Do Earthquakes Form?

When the plates slip, the movement creates seismic waves. This energy becomes an earthquake!

tectonic plates

recording seismic waves

Earth has seven major tectonic plates. They move deep below Earth's surface. Sometimes the plates get stuck. Energy builds as they try to move.

What Are Hurricanes?

These huge storms start in tropical oceans. In the United States, they bring disaster to eastern coastal areas.

How Many Hurricanes?

How many hurricanes happen across the United States every year?

0 hurricanes per year =
1 to 28 hurricanes per year =
29 to 64 hurricanes per year =
65 to 141 hurricanes per year =

Hurricanes are powerful storms. They are sometimes called tropical cyclones.

Children's Storytellers

Creating Silly Stories

After finishing school, Dav worked as an artist. He also wrote more books. But Dav had a hard time finding success. His second book was rejected 23 times before being published!

"I live a very simple life, and often spend several hours each day just daydreaming."

Dav Pilkey

12

13

Soon, Dav created the Dragon series. Then he worked on Kat Kong and Dogzilla. Kids loved these silly stories!

Country Profiles

PEOPLE

A TOP POPULATION
Indonesia's population is the fourth largest in the world.

Indonesia is one of the most diverse countries in the world. Its nearly 263 million people belong to more than 300 different ethnic groups. The largest is the Javanese. They live on Java and make up two of every five Indonesian people. The Sundanese and the Malay are the next largest groups.

Because there are so many different cultures, Indonesia is home to many different languages. Most people learn their native language at home. The official language, Bahasa Indonesia, is taught in schools. Almost all Indonesians are Muslim. Some people in the country practice Christianity or Buddhism.

FAMOUS FACE

WILDLIFE

Greece's different regions hold many types of animals. Wildcats and brown bears roam through the mountains, alongside martens and roe deer. Leopard snakes and tortoises prefer dry scrubland. Rare wild goats called krikris wander the island of Crete. The surrounding seas hold creatures like octopuses, squids, and dolphins, Greece's national animal.

Raptors such as the booted eagle soar above the country. Butterflies, once honored by the ancient Greeks, also take to the skies. Greece welcomes many migrating birds, including geese and kestrels.

COMMON TORTOISE

LEOPARD SNAKE

LESSER KESTREL

RARE BIRDS
Many people consider the phoenix to be Greece's national animal. Stories of this mythological bird say that the birds do not die. Instead, they burn into flames and are reborn from the ashes.

STRIPED DOLPHIN
Life Span: up to 58 years
Red List Status: least concern

THE BIG TRUTH!
What Represents Ohio?

States choose specific animals, plants, and objects to represent the values and characteristics of the land and its people. Find out why these symbols were chosen to represent Ohio or discover surprising curiosities about them.

Seal
Ohio's state seal shows a rising sun with 19 rays that symbolize the original 13 colonies. A sheaf of wheat in the background is a symbol of Ohio's bountiful farmland.

Flag
Ohio's state flag is unlike any other in the country. It is a burgee. This means it has a triangular top and a rectangular shape cut out at the end. All other state flags are rectangular. Like the U.S. flag, Ohio's flag features a red, white, and blue design of stars and stripes. The 17 stars on the flag represent Ohio's place as the 17th state.

Black Racer
STATE REPTILE
This snake assists Ohio's farmers by killing rodents that damage crops.

Cardinal
STATE BIRD
This beautiful bird can be found in all 88 of Ohio's counties and in both rural and urban areas.

Burro
STATE FROG
This loud croaker can be found in ponds, marshes, and slow-moving streams throughout Ohio.

Ohio Flint
STATE GEMSTONE
Large amounts of this gem can be found in eastern and central Ohio.

Red Carnation
STATE FLOWER
Ohio-born president William McKinley often wore a red carnation on his jacket for good luck.

Tomato Juice
STATE BEVERAGE
Tomato juice was adopted as Ohio's state beverage in 1965 to coincide with the Tomato Festival held in Reynoldsburg.

Geography
The Pacific Coast forms Oregon's western border. To the north is Washington State. The mighty Columbia River forms most of the border between these two states. One of the largest rivers in the country, the Columbia flows 1,243 miles (2,000 kilometers) from Canada into the Pacific Ocean. Idaho lies to Oregon's east, while California and Nevada are to the south.

Mount Hood
With a height of 11,239 feet (3,426 m), the summit of Mount Hood is the highest point in Oregon. This volcano was originally named Wy'east by the Multnomah people, who have lived in the area for hundreds of years. Its snowy slopes make it a popular destination in northwestern Oregon for skiers and snowboarders. Mount Hood is home to the only ski resort in the country where people can ski year-round. Climbers and hikers also enjoy the challenge of trying to reach the mountain's snowy highest points.

WHILE THE SOUTH HAD A SOLID military leader in Lee, President Lincoln had a difficult time finding the right general to head the main Union army, called the Army of the Potomac. His first choice, George McClellan, was a superb organizer of troops and a brilliant tactician. However, he often avoided leading his army into battle because he did not want to risk losing men.

Frustrated by McClellan's behavior, Lincoln recalled him in March 1862 and tried several other generals in the position. But each had his own failings. In desperation, Lincoln put McClellan back in charge in August.

The Union general met Lee's army at Sharpsburg, Maryland, near Antietam Creek, in September 1862. The Battle of Antietam resulted in the bloodiest single day of the war: The Union won the battle, but McClellan didn't pursue Lee and his troops as they fled in defeat. He allowed them to escape when he might have ended the war. Lincoln was furious. In November 1862, he relieved McClellan of command for the last time.

President Lincoln (center) meets with Major Alan Pinkerton (left) and a Union general at a Union camp in Maryland in 1862.

Dragon

Dav Pilkey / Ages 5-7 • Grades K-2

When Dragon finds a stray cat in his yard, he brings it inside to escape the cold. He likes living with his new feline friend, but Dragon soon realizes that he doesn't know how to take care of it. He doesn't know how to train the cat, what to feed the cat, and what to do about all the yellow puddles the cat leaves behind! Using his trademark humor and heart, Dav Pilkey illustrates the highs and lows of having a new pet in this tender story about care and responsibility.

YOU CAN'T CATCH LIGHTNING!

"You'll never catch the lightning dragon," said Duke. "You can't catch lightning!" "The dragon is like a living lightning bolt!" Duke said. "He is a baby lightning dragon," Duke explained. "And you're no dragon master!" "He must've flown here because you put on your dragon stone, Duke," said Duke. "He could fly away anytime!" Duke called down from high. "He's over here!" "We must catch him!" Duke said. "How?" Duke asked. "You can't catch lightning!"

George and Harold are behind bars for a crime they didn't commit! But just as they are settling into their new life, they are pulled from prison by a time-traveling tyrant named Tippy Tinkletrousers! Now the boys are taking a trip back in time to the carefree days of kindergarten, when the scariest thing they had to face was not evil mad scientists or alien cafeteria ladies but a sixth-grade bully named Kipper Krupp, the nephew of their clueless school principal. And because George and Harold don't invent Captain Underpants until they're in fourth grade, the clever kindergartners are on their own. Can they beat the bullies with brainpower instead of Wedgie Power?

There are only so many times a kid can invent an instrument of global destruction without getting grounded. So when Nikki's death ray accidentally blows up her bedroom (if you can call a pet ferret with an itchy trigger finger an accident), she's sent to the only place that can handle her. Genius Academy is a school for history's greatest brains. Leo da Vinci? Charlotte Darwin? Bert Einstein? All extraordinary. Yet even among her fellow prodigies, Nikki feels like an outsider thanks to a terrible secret she can't let anyone discover. Ever.

The seven dragon tribes have been at war for generations, locked in an endless battle over an ancient, lost treasure. A secret movement called the Talons of Peace is determined to bring an end to the fighting, with the help of a prophecy — a foretelling that calls for great sacrifice.

Five dragonets are collected to fulfill the prophecy, raised in a hidden cave and enlisted, against their will, to end the terrible war.

Bird & Squirrel All Tangled Up 978-1-338-25183-8 • 825183
 When Red has to go spend the night helping Grandmole, Bird and Squirrel are put in charge of taking care of Squirrel's daughter, Birdie. But Birdie wants to go with her mom because staying home is so BORING! So Bird convinces Squirrel (despite his better judgment) to have some fun while Red is gone. And as far as Bird is concerned, nothing is more fun than setting off in search of the most elusive creature of the forest: Bigfoot! And even though Squirrel teaches Birdie that being prepared is always best, nothing can prepare them for the crazy adventures ahead!

Bird & Squirrel On Fire
978-0-545-80429-5 • 580429
 It's been a long, crazy trip around the world. Now the duo is back in their beloved forest, and Bird wants to throw a party! But Squirrel isn't in the mood to celebrate. His house needs a good cleaning, the river has been dammed up by a pesky beaver, and the forest animals are jittery about a growing menace. Will the dam dry out the forest? Will the mysterious new danger ruin the party? Will Bird finally convince Squirrel to let go and just have a good time?

Guts
978-0-545-85251-7 • 585251
Raina wakes up one night with a terrible upset stomach. Her mom has one, too, so it's probably just a bug. Raina eventually returns to school, where she's dealing with the usual highs and lows: friends, not-friends, and classmates who think the school year is just one long gross-out session. It soon becomes clear that Raina's tummy trouble isn't going away... and it coincides with her worries about food, school, and changing friendships. What's going on?

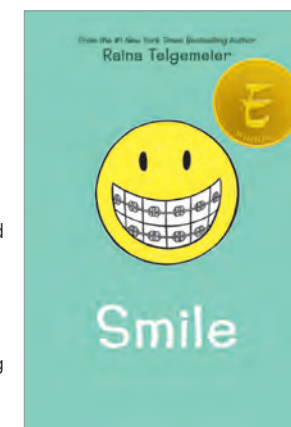

Ghosts
978-0-545-54061-2 • 554061
Catrina and her family are moving to the coast of Northern California because her little sister, Maya, is sick. Cat isn't happy about leaving her friends for Bahia de la Luna, but Maya has cystic fibrosis and will benefit from the cool, salty air that blows in from the sea. As the girls explore their new home, a neighbor lets them in on a secret: There are ghosts in Bahia de la Luna. Maya is determined to meet one, but Cat wants nothing to do with them. As the time of year when ghosts reunite with their loved ones approaches, Cat must figure out how to put aside her fears for her sister's sake — and her own.

Sisters
978-0-545-54059-9 • 554059
Raina can't wait to be a big sister. But once Amara is born, things aren't quite how she expected them to be. Amara is cute, but she's also a cranky, grouchy baby, and mostly prefers to play by herself. Their relationship doesn't improve much over the years, but when a baby brother enters the picture and later, something doesn't seem right between their parents, they realize they must figure out how to get along. They are sisters, after all.

Drama
978-0-545-32698-8 • 532698
Callie loves theater. And while she would totally try out for her middle school's production of Moon over Mississippi, she can't really sing. Instead she's the set designer for the drama department's stage crew, and this year she's determined to create a set worthy of Broadway on a middle-school budget. But how can she, when she doesn't know much about carpentry, ticket sales are down, and the crew members are having trouble working together? Not to mention the onstage AND offstage drama that occurs once the actors are chosen. And when two cute brothers enter the picture, things get even crazier!

Smile
978-0-545-13205-3 • 513205
Raina just wants to be a normal sixth grader. But one night after Girl Scouts she trips and falls, severely injuring her two front teeth. What follows is a long and frustrating journey with on-again, off-again braces, surgery, embarrassing headgear, and even a retainer with fake teeth attached. And on top of all that, there's still more to deal with: a major earthquake, boy confusion, and friends who turn out to be not so friendly.

Sunny Rolls the Dice 978-1-338-23315-5 • 823315

Sunny's just made it to middle school . . . and it's making her life very confusing. All her best friend Deb wants to talk about is fashion, boys, makeup, boys, and being cool. Sunny's not against any of these things, but she also doesn't understand why suddenly everything revolves around them. She's much more comfortable when she's in her basement, playing Dungeons & Dragons with a bunch of new friends. Because when you're swordfighting and spider-slaying, it's hard to worry about whether you look cool or not. Especially when it's your turn to roll the 20-sided die.

Swing it, Sunny 978-0-545-74170-5 • 574170

Summer's over and it's time for Sunny Lewin to enter the strange and unfriendly hallways of . . . middle school. When her Gramps calls her from Florida to ask how she's doing, she always tells him she's fine. But the truth? Sunny is NOT having the best time.

Sunny Side Up 978-0-545-74165-1 • 574165

Sunny Lewin has been packed off to Florida to live with her grandfather for the summer. At first she thought Florida might be fun — it is the home of Disney World, after all. But the place where Gramps lives is no amusement park. It's full of . . . old people. Really old people.

Written and illustrated by Molly Knox Ostertag

Aster always looks forward to the Midwinter Festival, a reunion of the entire Vanissen family that includes competitions in witchery and shapeshifting. This year, he's especially excited to compete in the annual Jolrun tournament — as a witch. He's determined to show everyone that he's proud of who he is and what he's learned, but he knows it won't be easy to defy tradition.

When Abby enters sixth grade at her new boarding school, she is determined to reinvent herself. She sheds her shy personality and starts playing the part of confident, bubbly, popular "Abbi." She quickly learns about the Committee, an all-powerful student organization that controls nearly every aspect of extracurricular life. Whatever you do, you don't want to be on the Committee's bad side. Abby is shocked to discover that her older sister has also crafted herself into a new person at school—she's the president of the Committee. Each sister is a threat to the success of the other's new personality, and things grow heated as Abby and Sydney try to outmaneuver each other for power and influence.
