Chez Bob

Ages 4-8

Written and Illustrated by Bob Shea
(Little, Brown)

★ ALA NOTABLE RECORDING

Welcome to Chez Bob, which seems like a real restaurant...until you realize...it's on an alligator's NOSE! Bob's got a hidden plan for his customers: "Birds will come to eat, but I will eat the birds!" As they fly in from all over the world to dine on Bob's face, something starts to happen that takes the lazy, hungry reptile by surprise -- the birds stay. "More yummy birds!" he rejoices -- he'll want for nothing! But when the time is right, will Bob make the right choice? Narrated by John Lithgow. Music by Jack Sundrud and Russ Pahl. Animated by Virginia Wilkos. Includes an interview with the author, Bob Shea.

The Little Wooden Robot and the Log Princess

Ages 4-8

Written and Illustrated by Tom Gauld
(Neal Porter Books)

For years, the king and queen have tried desperately to have a baby. Their wish was granted twice, when an engineer and a witch gave them a little wooden robot and an enchanted log princess. But there's just one catch: every night when the log princess sleeps, she transforms back into an ordinary log, and can only be woken up with magic words. The princess and her robot brother are inseparable, until the sleeping princess, mistaken for lumber, is accidentally carted off to parts unknown. Now it's up to her devoted brother to find her, and get them safely back home. Narrated by Rosie Jones. Music by David Mansfield.

Our Table

Ages 5-8

Written and Illustrated by Peter H. Reynolds (Scholastic)

Violet longs for the time when her family was connected: before life, distractions, and technology pulled them all away from each other. They used to gather at the table, with food and love, to make memories, share their lives, and revel in time spent together. But now her family has been drifting apart, and with nobody to gather around it, the table grows smaller and smaller. Can Violet remind her family of the warmth of time spent together, and gather around the table once more? Narrated by author, Peter H. Reynolds. Music by Sarah Hart. ★ ASIAN/PACIFIC AMERICAN AWARD FOR LITERATURE

Gathering watercress by the side of the road brings a girl closer to her family's Chinese Heritage. Driving through Ohio in an old Pontiac, a young girl's parents stop suddenly when they spot watercress growing wild in a ditch by the side of the road. Grabbing an old paper bag and some rusty scissors, the whole family wades into the muck to collect as much of the muddy, snail covered watercress as they can. At first, she's embarrassed. Why can't her family get food from the grocery store? But when her mother shares a story of her family's time in China, the girl learns to appreciate the fresh food they foraged. Together, they make a new memory of watercress. Narrated by Sunny Lu. Music by Ernest Troost.

The Sun is Kind of a Big Deal

Ages 4-8

Written and Illustrated by Nick Seluk (Orchard)

★ ALA NOTABLE RECORDING

Oh hey, guess what? The Sun never stops working to keep things on Earth running smoothly. (That's why it's been Employee of the Month for 4.5 billion years.) So why does the Sun get to be the center of attention? Because it's our solar system's very own star! This funny and factual picture book from Awkward Yeti creator Nick Seluk explains every part of the Sun's big job: keeping our solar system together, giving Earth day and night, keeping us warm, and more. In fact, the Sun does so much for us that we wouldn't be alive without it. That's kind of a big deal. Narrated by Emily Eiden, David de Vries, Lauren Ezzo and others. Music by Jack Sundrud. Someone Builds the Dream

Ages 5-8

Written by Lisa Wheeler
Illustrated by Loren Long
(Dial Books)

This book is an eye opening exploration of the many types of work that go into building our world—from the making of a bridge to a wind farm, an amusement park, and even the very picture book that you are reading. An architect may dream up the plans for a house, but someone has to actually work the saws and pound the nails. This book is a thank-you to the skilled women and men who work tirelessly to see our dreams brought to life. Narrated by Janina Edwards. Music by Ernest Troost.

Wishes

Ages 4-8

Written by Mượn Thị Văn,
Illustrated by Victo Ngai
(Orchard)

★ ALA NOTABLE RECORDING

Wishes tells the powerful, honest story about one Vietnamese family's search for a new home on the other side of the world, and the long-lasting and powerful impact that makes on one of the youngest members of the family. Inspired by actual events in the author's life, this is a narrative that is both timely and timeless. Told through the eyes of a young girl, the story chronicles a family's difficult and powerful journey to pack up what they can carry and to leave their world behind, traveling to a new and unknown place in a crowded boat. With sparse, poetic, and lyrical text from acclaimed author Mượn Thị Văn, thoughtful back matter about the author's connection to the story, and luminous, stunning illustrations from Forbes 30 Under 30 honoree Victo Ngai, Wishes tells a powerful and timely story in a gentle and approachable way for young children and their families. Narrated by Mượn Thị Văn. Music by Ernest Troost.

Be Kind

Ages 5-6

by Pat Zietlow Miller, ill. by Jen Hill (Roaring Brook Press)

When Tanisha spills grape juice all over her new dress, her classmate wants to make her feel better, wondering: What does it mean to be kind? From asking the new girl to play to standing up for someone being bullied, this moving story explores what kindness is, and how any act, big or small, can make a difference or at least help a friend. With a gentle text from the award-winning author of Sophie's Squash, Pat Zietlow Miller, and irresistible art from Jen Hill, Be Kind is an unforgettable story about how two simple words can change the world. Narrated by Thérèse Plummer. Music By Ernest Troost.

Carina Felina

Written by Carmen Agra Deedy, Illustrated by Henry Cole.

(Scholastic)

★ ALA NOTABLE RECORDING

The trouble started when Pepe the parrot fell in love with . . . a CAT! Hoping to win her paw, he invited her to his house for dinner. But within moments of arriving — with a gobble and a gulp — Carina swallowed that love-sick parrot whole! And he was just the appetizer! In this Cuban retelling of a classic folktale, Carmen Agra Deedy and Henry Cole merge their talents to create a wickedly funny and inspiring picture book that proves the smallest of creatures can sometimes possess the most surprising strength! Narrated by Carmen Agra Deedy. Music by Miguel Comas and Lisset Diaz.

The Case for Loving: The Fight for Interracial Marriage

by Selina Alko, Illustrated by Sean Qualls & Selina Alko (Arthur A. Levine Books)

★ KIRKUS BEST PICTURE BOOKS OF 2015

★ NYPL 100 NOTABLE BOOKS FOR READING AND SHARING

★ STARRED BOOK REVIEWS IN BOOKLIST, KIRKUS, PW

This is the story of one brave family: Mildred Loving, Richard Perry Loving, and their three children. It is the story of how Mildred and Richard fell in love, and got married in Washington, D.C. But when they moved back to their hometown in Virginia, they were arrested (in dramatic fashion) for violating that state's laws against interracial marriage. The Lovings refused to allow their children to get the message that their parents' love was wrong and so they fought the unfair law, taking their case all the way to the Supreme Court - and won! Read by Bahni Turpin. Music by Ernest Troost.

Jovita Wore Pants

Ages 3-5

The Story of a Mexican Freedom Fighter

by Aida Salazar, Illustrated by Molly Mendoza.

(Scholastic)

"Jovita dreamed of wearing pants like her brothers, Ramón and Luciano. She hated the way the big skirts that Abuela made her wear tangled around her legs as she scaled the tallest mesquite tree in Rancho Palos Blancos. She wanted to ride her horse Morongo and feel the wind curl her face into a smile. When her father and brothers joined the Cristeros War to fight for the right to practice religion freely, she wanted to help. Though she wasn't allowed to fight, that didn't stop her from learning the terrain and observing how her father strategized. Then tragedy struck, compelling Jovita to cut her hair, put on pants, and continue the fight. Disguised as a man, she commanded a battalion who followed her without question. The Little Wooden Robot and the Log Princess

Ages 4-8

Written and Illustrated by Tom Gauld

(Neal Porter Books)

For years, the king and queen have tried desperately to have a baby. Their wish was granted twice, when an engineer and a witch gave them a little wooden robot and an enchanted log princess. But there's just one catch: every night when the log princess sleeps, she transforms back into an ordinary log, and can only be woken up with magic words. The princess and her robot brother are inseparable, until the sleeping princess, mistaken for lumber, is accidentally carted off to parts unknown. Now it's up to her devoted brother to find her, and get them safely back home. They need to take turns to get each other home, and on the way, they face a host of adventures involving the Queen of Mushrooms, a magic pudding, a baby in a rosebush, and an old lady in a bottle. Narrated by Rosie Jones. Music by David Mansfield.

Meet Mary McScary. Mary likes to be scary. She scares her mom, her dad, her pets, and even a balloon! But there's just one person Mary can't scare -- her cousin, Harry McScary. He's not afraid of the usual things, like spiders, snakes, and other creepy crawlies. But Mary doesn't give up that easily, and one way or another she'll find a way to give Harry the scare of his life. ... Beware of Mary McScary! Narrated by Emily Eiden. Animated by duple. Includes a joint interview with author R.L. Stine and illustrator Marc Brown.

Our Table

Written and Illustrated by Peter H. Reynolds

(Scholastic)

"The exchange between the dramatic pigeon (voiced by Mo Willems) and the cucumber-cool duckling (Trix Willems) is hilarious. Trix's voice—childlike yet sophisticated—provides a restrained and charming foil for Willems' larger-than-life pigeon...a fun musical score accents the drama and serves as a delightful backdrop."

The Rooster Who Would Not Be Quiet

by Carmen Agra Deedy, illustrated by Eugene Yelchin (Scholastic)

La Paz is a happy, but noisy village. A little peace and quiet would make it just right. So the villagers elect the bossy Don Pepe as their mayor. Before long, singing of any kind is outlawed. Even the teakettle is afraid to whistle! But there is one noisy rooster who doesn't give two mangos about this mayor's silly rules. Instead, he does what roosters were born to do. Celebrate the spirit of freedom – and the courage of those who are born to sing at any cost. Both English and Spanish narrated by author Carmen Agra Deedy. Music by John McCutcheon. The Sun is Kind of a Big Deal

by Nick Seluk (Orchard)

★ ALA NOTABLE RECORDING

Oh hey, guess what? The Sun never stops working to keep things on Earth running smoothly. (That's why it's been Employee of the Month for 4.5 billion years.) So why does the Sun get to be the center of attention? Because it's our solar system's very own star! This funny and factual picture book from Awkward Yeti creator Nick Seluk explains every part of the Sun's big job: keeping our solar system together, giving Earth day and night, keeping us warm, and more. In fact, the Sun does so much for us that we wouldn't be alive without it. That's kind of a big deal. Narrated by Emily Eiden, David de Vries, Lauren Ezzo and others. Music by Jack Sundrud. Tomorrow Most Likely

by Dave Eggers, ill. by Lane Smith (Chronicle Books)

Rather than focusing on going to bed — and what kid wants to think about going to bed? — this book explores all of the dreamy, wonderful, strange things the next day might bring. Whimsical, witty, and hopeful, Tomorrow Most Likely is a revolutionary rewriting of a classic goodnight book from bestselling author Dave Eggers and award-winning illustrator Lane Smith. Narrated by Channie Waites. Music by Sarah Hart. Animated by Pete List.

When Things Aren't Going Right, Go Left

by Marc Colagiovanni, ill. by Peter H. Reynolds

(Orchard Books)

"One day for no particular reason, nothing was going right. Absolutely positively, nothing was going right. So, I decided to go left..." Told through creative language play, and with depth and whimsy, this story reminds children of their own agency and the power they have to direct their own path. An enduring message of strength and perseverance that is both universal and personal, and one that audiences will be drawn to over and over again.

Narrated by Chester Gregory. Music by Sarah Hart. Animated by FableVision.

When You Can Swim

Written and illustrated by Jack Wong

(Scholastic)

★ ALA NOTABLE RECORDING

In expansive vignettes, we meet sandpipers, tannin-soaked lakes, the feeling of a small waterfall on one's shoulders. Artist and author Jack Wong has delivered an empowering, poetic modern classic that fills readers with the wonder and confidence needed to overcome their fears of the water. When You Can Swim invites children into the warmth and wonder of the natural world and its watery splendors. At the same time, children will experience the joyousness that nature's lessons teach us through its beauty. Narrated by Shannon Tyo. Music by Bruce Zimmerman.

Written by Mượn Thị Văn,

Illustrated by Victo Ngai (Orchard)

- ★ ALA NOTABLE RECORDING

Wishes tells the powerful, honest story about one Vietnamese family's search for a new home on the other side of the world, and the long-lasting and powerful impact that makes on one of the youngest members of the family. Inspired by actual events in the author's life, this is a narrative that is both timely and timeless. Told through the eyes of a young girl, the story chronicles a family's difficult and powerful journey to pack up what they can carry and to leave their world behind, traveling to a new and unknown place in a crowded boat. With sparse, poetic, and lyrical text from acclaimed author Mượn Thị Văn, thoughtful back matter about the author's connection to the story, and luminous, stunning illustrations from Forbes 30 Under 30 honoree Victo Ngai, Wishes tells a powerful and timely story in a gentle and approachable way for young children and their families.
